How you make a difference

You'll helping us to give life-changing support to thousands of women and families facing unexpected pregnancy or pregnancy loss in the UK.

At some of the most difficult and critical times in a woman's life, we step in with real, practical help. From a secure and safe home, and essential baby supplies, to emotional and professional support, Life walks alongside women and families when they need it most.

What you'll be doing

- Distributing leaflets and posters in your local supermarkets, shops or community centres etc
- Encourage individuals to sign up to Life fundraising events and challenges
- Identifying and reaching out to potential groups/clubs/churches about a talk
- Giving talks to members of the community about the work that Life does using the language and training provided by Life
- Attending ad hoc events organised by the fundraising team
- Encourage people to fundraise for life and promote other ways to get involved

*Please note this role is flexible, and you can choose which elements you feel comfortable with doing.

The skills you'll need

- Friendly and approachable
- Reliable
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Confidence in speaking in front of an audience
- Comfortable speaking about what we do as a charity

- The ability to have sensitive conversations with supporters

What's in it for you

We want to make sure you have enough information to carry out your voluntary role. You will receive:

- Provide induction, information and training to enable you to carry out your volunteering effectively.
- Support your personal development by offering appropriate induction, training and feedback opportunities.
- Provide policies, procedures and standards of the organisation in relation to Volunteering.
- Provide regular organisational communication and updates.
- Opportunities for further involvement, such as planning your own fundraising events in the community

Essential Requirements
